ITINERARY

July 7– Vancouver

Arrive independently to this lively city, and make your way to the pier for check-in. Settle into your stateroom and relax as the ship prepares for its late afternoon sailing from Vancouver's spectacular harbour.

July 8 – Scenic Cruising Inside Passage

With most of Southeast Alaska accessible only by boat or plane, the stunning 1,000-mile Inside Passage is a lifeline to the outside world.

July 9 – Tracy Arm & Juneau

The day begins by sailing the 26-mile long Tracy Arm fjord, where lush rainforests give way to vertical rock cliffs, waterfalls and icebergs, before ending at the twin Sawyer Glaciers. Then, dock in Juneau, where you can visit Mendenhall Glacier, explore the lush Tongass National Forest, kayak, dogsled or hunt for souvenirs in town.

July 10 – Skagway

Once a boisterous gold rush town, Skagway is the perfect place to take a ride on the White Pass & Yukon Route, where you can get introduced to the world of dogsledding, take in a Yukon horseback ride or embark on a canoe adventure.

July 11 – Scenic Cruising Glacier Bay

You'll be awestruck by the 1000-year-old glacial ice cliffs and their countless shades of white, blue, grey and green. Experience the unforgettable, roaring "white thunder" of a glacier calving into the sea, as a National Park Service ranger interprets the sights and sounds around you.

July 12 – Ketchikan

Once known as the "salmon capital of the world" for its many canneries, today's Ketchikan is a small, sleepy city clinging to the shores of Tongass Narrows and draping the surrounding mountains.

July 13 – Scenic Cruising Inside Passage

Take in the breathtaking beauty of the rich green forests and tumbling turquoise glaciers from a prime location on the railing or — even better — your own private verandah.

July 14 – Vancouver

Arrive into this vibrant city early, where you'll depart for home.
